

Oleg Okunev

Fréchet property in compact spaces is not preserved by M -equivalence

Comment.Math.Univ.Carolinae 46,4 (2005) 747-749.

Abstract: An example of two M -equivalent (hence l -equivalent) compact spaces is presented, one of which is Fréchet and the other is not.

Keywords: l -equivalence, M -equivalence, Fréchet property

AMS Subject Classification: 54C35, 54H11, 54D99