Driss Aiat Hadj Ahmed, Rachid Tribak
Jordan automorphisms of triangular algebras II

Abstract: We give a sufficient condition under which any Jordan automorphism of a triangular algebra is either an automorphism or an anti-automorphism.

References

[1] Aiat-Hadj A.D., Ben Yakoub L., Jordan automorphisms, Jordan derivations of generalized triangular matrix algebra, Internat. J. Math. Math. Sci. 13 (2005), 2125–2132.

[2] Benkovič D., Eremita D., Commuting traces and commutativity preserving maps on triangular algebras, J. Algebra 280 (2004), 797–824.

[3] Benkovič D., Eremita D., Multiplicative Lie n-derivations of triangular rings, Linear Algebra Appl. 436 (2012), 4223–4240.

[4] Herstein I.N., Jordan homomorphisms, Trans. Amer. Math. Soc. 81(2) (1956), 331–341.

[5] Khazal R., Dăscălescu S., Van Wyk L., Isomorphism of generalized triangular matrix-rings and recovery of tiles, Internat. J. Math. Math. Sci. 9 (2003), 533–538.