Gabriele Bonanno, Salvatore A. Marano
A characterization of the existence of solutions to some higher order boundary value problems

Abstract: The aim of this short note is to present a theorem that characterizes the existence of solutions to a class of higher order boundary value problems. This result completely answers a question previously set by the authors in [Differential Integral Equations 6 (1993), 1119–1123].

1